Rochester Walkathon

Rochester Memorial School's annual Walk-A-Thon was held Saturday, May 21st. Mother Nature cooperated and allowed 150 students to walk from 1 to 5 p.m. under bright sunny skies.

A new school record was set by third grader Doug Ziewacz who walked 19 miles.

The Parent-Teachers' Organization planned the event and money collected is used to purchase equipment and services for the grammar school students.

In the past the money has been used to buy a computer, sound equipment for the stage, and pay for special assemblies.

Holiday Deadlines

Because of the Memorial Day holiday this Monday, May 30th, the deadlines for the June 1st issue will be as follows:

Display Advertising, Thursday, May 26, 12 noon.

News, Friday, May 27, 12 noon.

Classified Ads, Friday, May 27, 5 p.m.

Memorial Day Observances

Mattapoisett

Memorial Day exercises in Mattapoisett, sponsored by the Florence Eastman Post No. 280, American Legion, will be held at the Mattapoisett Library, Barstow Street, Monday, May 30th, at 1:30 p.m. The address will be given by Justice Antone S. Aguiar. The Gettysburg Address will be by David Vermette and prayer by Father Larry Morrison, SS.CC. Selections will be by the Old Rochester Regional High School Band and the Old Hammondtown School Band.

Following the exercises all units will form in front of the Monument for Memorial Services. The parade will then form on Barstow Street headed north. The parade will proceed to Church Street, right to North, right to Water, east on Water to the Town Wharf for a Memorial Salute to men lost at sea; west on Water to Main Street, to Acushnet Road and Cushing Cemetery. Following ceremonies there the parade will proceed to the Legion Hall for dismissal. Refreshments will be served to the marchers by members of the American Legion Post 280 Auxiliary.

Parade Marshalls will be Lt. Col. George White and Major Charles Morgan.

In the event of rain the parade will be cancelled and exercises will be held at the Old Rochester Regional High School auditorium at 1:30 p.m.

Marion

All units participating in the Memorial Day Parade and Observance in Marion are requested to report at Music Hall, Front and Cottage Streets, at 8 a.m. Monday, May 30th. All units will be in Parade formation by 8:45 a.m.

The Memorial Day Observance will begin with the raising of the colors by the Marion V.F.W. with the National Anthem by the Old Rochester Regional High School Band. After a short ceremony at the Civil War Monument the parade will proceed as follows: south on Front Street to Main Street; turn west on Main to Route 6, then turn south to entrance of Evergreen Ceme-

Selectmen's Meeting

FOSTER STREET ISSUE CLOSED

Selectmen have established that Foster Street extends from Beacon Street to Shipyard Lane and was never extended to the water as drawn on some old maps, at a hearing on Monday.

Assessor John Gibbons said that the two adjoining properties in the line of Foster Street have always been taxed to that line.

Some months ago, at the request of Robert Brown and neighbors, Selectmen had Town Counsel Donald Fleming do a title search of some length that did not turn up any evidence that Foster Street was ever extended to the water. This search was never carried to conclusion because of the cost of proceeding and the possible court costs.

The Selectmen now are satisfied that the strip of land, containing a drain, between the Nosworthy and Higgins properties is not a public way but is private land with an easement to the town to allow the cleaning of the drain. The whole issue is now a private matter according to the Selectmen.

RESENT LICENSE FOR "JUNK"

William and Arlene Dexter, proprietors of the 1812 House at Bolles Corner, took exception to the wording of the application of the license furnished to them for their antique shop because the term "junk" dealer was used. Mrs. Dexter said that she would not associate antiques with the words junk or second hand. "We sell with integrity", she said. She said that the designation antique has been used very loosely by some shops but in the 1812 House it has always been used in the proper context.

She said that further she has always maintained a trust with her customers and would not like to be required to take a photo of a person offering an antique for purchase. She said that she felt it would be an affront - that she did not feel that such a deal should be an open book. She explained that she has a one room shop dealing in heirlooms which she buys from people she knows and those people expect that she would maintain a confidential relationship.

Chairman John DeCosta said the license is now being issued at the request of Police Chief James Moran so that police will have a method of tracing merchandise that is found to be stolen. Selectman Frank Suzan said that police have already found such items in Mattapoisett.

Mrs. Dexter replied that she keeps detailed books already and would welcome police to her shop to determine the proper ownership of an article if the issue ever arose but that she did not feel that her transactions should be open at all times.

She was assured that a driver's license with the prospective seller's photo would be sufficient photo identification (that she did not have to take and keep a photo) and that police would not make routine calls but would investigate only when something specific was in question. Mrs. Dexter appeared relieved and said "I would have to respect my clients' privacy as it is only fair to my customers." She went on to say that she did not like the word antique even remotely connected with second hand articles because the two are not even remotely connected.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter were furnished with a revised application for the $20.00 per year license that has the words junk deleted. It was explained that the license was a form designed to cover a wide range of businesses which accounts for the wording of the form.

POLICE APPOINTMENTS

Acting on the recommendation of Police Chief James Moran, the Selectmen appointed Paul W. Fluegel of 136 North Street, Mattapoisett; Paul A. Gomes of 178 Smith Street, New Bedford; and Paul N. Hutchinson of 61 Ocean Street, New Bedford, as part time officers.

Selectman Frank Suzan noted that many recent appointments have been out-of-towners and said that he would like to see qualified residents given priority as police officers. Selectman James Huntoon said that he had talked with Chief Moran and that the chief had been pleased to find a resident candidate who was qualified. It is the policy of the police department to appoint residents when they can be found and who have the proper qualifications, he said.

The three appointment openings were occasioned by the resignation of Officer Gwozdz who is moving out of state, Kenneth Sylvia who will work reduced hours because of a new position; and Robert Gonneville who will also be working reduced hours because of a new job.

FIRE DEPARTMENT APPOINTMENTS

Paul Bradley was reappointed as Mattapoisett Fire Chief and Donald Wood was named Deputy Chief as Selectmen assumed control of the Fire Department, formerly exercised by the Board of Fire Engineers. Chairman John DeCosta said that the Fire Department is now under the direction of the Board of Selectmen, just as the Police Department operates, as a result of the town meeting vote to abolish the Board of Fire Engineers which will result in a yearly savings of $2,400.

HARBOR BEACH SECURED

Executive Secretary Carol Adams reported to Selectmen that she had inspected the Harbor Beach property and found that owner John Stavros had moved the fire escape,

Some of you have never been to the Heritage Plantation which should be beautiful at this time of year. It is especially noted for its rhododendrons but has many other flowers and bushes. Its three museums are all different -- antique cars beautifully restored, miniature soldiers in battle array, guns and other weapons, antique carpenters' tools, prints and paintings; and a beautiful fully operating carousel. Continuous transportation is provided for those of you who wish it.

The Indian Museum is a rescheduled trip, and those of you who originally had reservations have priority but must confirm your reservation before we allow others to make reservations, as originally the bus was full.

Please note the three July trips and advance notice required. It would be impossible to cover here all the details of the three-day Brandywine Weekend, so if you are interested please pick up the special circular and application at our office. It gives all the details.

WOMAN'S CLUB RAPE DISCUSSION

There are 15,000 rape incidents in Massachusetts a year, but how likely are your chances of being raped in Rochester? The Rochester Woman's Club offers the opportunity to find out more about rape at a special one-hour presentation Wednesday, June 1, at 8:00 p.m. in the clubhouse on Route 105.

Joan Ouellette of the New Bedford Women's Center will address the myths and facts surrounding rape, self-protection, and the development of a rape crisis center.

A business meeting will follow.

Awareness at Bishop Stang

Awareness in the world around us could have been the title of the two programs recently held at Bishop Stang High School.

The first program, Social Awareness Day, prompted students to explore the social needs of people living in today's complex world. This was followed by a day of seminars addressing those needs and the manner in which they were being met. Twenty-six speakers from various social service agencies came to the school to discuss such topics as Deaf Awareness, The Rights of the Mentally Handicapped, Food and Shelter, Alcohol and Drugs, and Community Support Programs.

The second program, Career Awareness, involved the polling of students to determine their career interests. Twenty-four different professional occupations were identified. Representatives from each were invited to speak to the students. All Junior and Senior students attended six different career presentations covering such questions as education requirements, job availability, and salary. The Career Awareness Day was organized and sponsored by the Bishop Stang Parents' Club.

SENATOR TSONGAS IN NEW BEDFORD

Coastline Elderly Services, Inc., working with other community leaders, has arranged for a Senior Town Meeting with Senator Paul Tsongas on June 2nd at 10:00 a.m. at the Buttonwood Senior Citizen Center, Oneida Street, New Bedford.

The purpose of this meeting is to clear up the confusion concerning the issues that affect our elderly population, exchange information with seniors, and to discuss the changes in Social Security, and the proposed changes in Medicare and the Older Americans Act.

Mr. Alves, Director of Coastline Elderly Services, encourages all seniors to attend for it is important that seniors express their interest and support for programs to Older Americans.

AREA LIONS' CLUBS AID SRI LANKA THROUGH SPECIAL CARE PROJECT

Lions' Clubs in the communities of Mattapoisett, Marion, Rochester and more than 50 other Cape Cod and South Shore area towns are part of a District 33-S Lions-CARE program in Massachusetts which will help to improve the nutritional status of low-income families throughout the island nation of Sri Lanka (formerly Ceylon) through the development of soybean-based foodstuffs during 1983.

Under the leadership of District Governor David White of Acushnet and District Lions-CARE chairman Albert Cannon of South Attleboro, the Lions have set a goal of $2500 to fund this important nutrition program.

Richard Calandrella, CARE's Director of Development in New England, said this project is important because recent surveys have determined that more than one million children on the island suffer from second or third degree malnutrition.

Calandrella said the CARE project being supported by the Lions involves the cultivation, distribution and home preparation of soybeans and soybean-based foodstuffs to help improve nutritional levels of these children and their families.

"The soybean is a high priority crop in Sri Lanka," Calandrella said, "since it contains twice the protein, 10 times the fat and almost no starch compared to common beans." He said that soybean yield is double per acre of any other bean grown on the island and when the bean itself is processed into a flour-like powder it can be used in baked goods, porridges, and to fortify milk drinks. "It's highly nutritious and very versatile," Calandrella added.

Mattapoisett Historical Society

As Margaret Holmes' hands and feet began working to weave the white cotton yarn into a piece of fabric, the ancient floor loom came to life after having been idle for perhaps more than a century.

In a section of the Mattapoisett Historical Society's carriage shed, the two-harness loom -- once housed in an early homestead at Aucoot -- had been reassembled and warped in a project that began three years ago.

The loom is on permanent loan to the society from Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Alden of Aucoot Road, who own the homestead locally known as the Isaac Hiller Farm at Aucoot.

The home dates back to c. 1700 and was built by Timothy Davis. His granddaughter, Sarah Somers, married Isaac Hiller in 1755. The house was in the Hiller family from then until the late 1800s.

The reed loom, located in a section of the attic in the home, was constructed in a manner typical of the joining done in the building of houses of the 1700s, with mortise and tenon joints and offset pins. Its 5-foot long beams were disassembled by Mr. Alden and his daughter, society member Priscilla Hathaway, trucked to the museum and reassembled.

"It was pretty easy because all the joints were marked by Roman numerals by the original craftsman", said Mrs. Hathaway.

Before the loom could be put into working condition, much research had to be done. The heddles were too fragile and so some 200 heddles had to be retied. The wood in the original loom -- all hand hewn -- still is as solid as granite, but rope and the pulleys within the blocks had to be replaced.

Working for three years on warm spring and fall days when the museum was closed, a small group of volunteers reassembled and warped the loom, using all the original parts available.

Margaret Holmes of Norwood, a well-known weaver, and her husband, Osborne, a retired policeman, supervised and performed much of the restoration work and the warping of the loom. They were helped by Mrs. Hathaway, who called the exhibit one of the most original and complete collections of home weaving equipment in the East.

"The collection is far better than that at Williamsburg, Sturbridge Village and at Deerfield", she said.

She said she now realizes, too, why textiles were the most valuable assets in early estate inventories. "They had to grow the materials used, spin it, then weave it, cut it and make it into a functional garment. You can see how much time and labor was involved."

In addition to the floor loom, there is on display some of the early braided rope used to work it. A tape loom is on permanent loan, too, from the Alden's and the exhibit includes a lap loom given to the society by Herbert T. Jensen of Brandt Island Road. The lap loom came from a barn in the Hammondtown area.

There are also early winders, spinning wheels, shuttles, a spool rack and other incidentals in the display.

The excitement of completing the project is augmented by the floor loom's ties to people still living in Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester, Mrs. Hathaway said. "So many families in the three towns are directly descended from the people who worked the loom in the 18th and 19th centuries.

"It would be fun to have any descendants of the Davis, Somers and Hiller Families add to the fabric now being woven to see how much it would grow."

The Historical Society Museum will be open to the public during July and August and a special exhibit of woven coverlets and pieces will be shown during that time.

Anyone owning an early woven piece who would like to loan it to the society for the exhibit is requested to contact Mrs. Hathaway or Mrs. Arthur Tiffany, society president.

Also on display will be several society-owned paintings of the Hiller Farm and saltworks at Aucoot done in the 1870s by Clelia Lega-Weeks. The paintings were among six pieces of art the society recently had restored at the Northeast Document Conservation Center in Andover.

INTRAMURAL MATH MEET

The members of the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School Math Department are pleased to announce the results of last week's intramural Math Meet. Each year, talented students are encouraged to participate in intellectual competition with their classmates. Problems for the Math Meet are selected to test students' creativity as well as computational competencies. This year's winning team represented team 7 West and included Christine Lynch, Kendall Garey, Amy Moore, Allison Stewart, and Sue Reid. Second place went to team 8 South; third to team 8 North; and team 7 East rounded out the field in fourth place. Individual high scorers included Ricky Reagan, Joyce Senna, Liza Bozoyan and Amy Moore.

Congratulations for all participants and their teachers are in order.

ORRJHS RUGBY CLUB WINS TOURNAMENT

More than thirty students from Old Rochester Regional Junior High School participated in the second annual New England Youth Rugby Tournament in Marshfield on Saturday, May 14th. Members of the coed club finished first in Middleweight Division Two, first in Lightweight Division One, and second in the Ladies Junior Division.

Rugby is a contact sport of English origin which resembles and predates American Gridiron Football. It is a sport which requires open field running, kick-

ORR Math Team

The ORR Math Team competed in the New England Math Meet at Canton High School on Friday, May 13th, and finished in a tie for 12th.

There were a total of 47 schools competing in the meet with each having to qualify through their various State Meets or by winning their individual leagues. The top scorer for ORR was Arlene Haskell, a senior calculus student from Mattapoisett, who will be attending Rensselaer in the fall. Other members of the team were Debbie Brewster, Joe LeBlanc, Carmen Gracia, Jeff Humphrey, and Jeff Starecheski.

The ORR Math Team completed its competition in the New England Mathematics League (a postal league) recently and finished in second place in Plymouth County behind Hingham High School. ORR finished ahead of such schools as: Brockton, Marshfield, Rockland, Scituate, and West Bridgewater. Leading scorer for ORR in this league was Carmen Gracia, a junior calculus student from Mattapoisett. The team had been the defending champions of Plymouth County last year.

Children's Museum

The smell of fresh paint and sawdust fills the air of the Children's Museum on Gulf Road in Dartmouth.

Museum doors will open the weekend of June 18th and 19th from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Outside events are planned throughout the weekend to complement the exciting exhibits inside.

Extraterrestrial atmosphere exhibits include a NASA Skylab space suit, and a Hologram room. They are guaranteed to transport your mind into outer space.

Another exhibit of Mt. St. Helens will bring to life the actions of volcanos as you view this 18 ft. photomural display.

An exquisite rock and mineral collection, some specimens from this area, tells its own story of the history of our planet.

There are many hands-on areas in the Museum. Children will enjoy the adventure area, a tree slide, a giant honeycomb, trains, and a unique "children's garden".

Some outside activities will include a puppet workshop and parade, the Morris Dancers from Wellesley, the Community Band, and the famous Boston tourist attraction, artist "Sidewalk Sam". There will be food available.

Capping this exciting weekend will be a Concert Under the Stars performed by the Regional Symphonic Band under the direction of John Pandolfi from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. Sunday, the 19th.

Admission for Museum entrance is 1.50 adults; 1.00 children; museum members, free.

Day) some fascinating film footage of an actual whaling voyage will be shown at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on Monday through Saturday, and at 2:00 p.m. on Sundays.

The fully-rigged, half-scale whaleship Lagoda, the largest ship model in the world, is always a favorite with families who may come aboard for a voyage back in time.

The scrimshaw, colonial kitchen, doll collection, rare prints and paintings, log books, models, glass and pewter are but a few of many exhibits the visitor will enjoy.

One gallery, dedicated to the "World of the Whaleman", shows the places he roamed, the things he saw, and the "souvenirs" he brought home. Uniquely displayed in this gallery are two large sections of the famous "three miles long" Panorama by Caleb T. Purrington and Benjamin Russell.

In addition, FREE guided walking tours of the Historic District are offered at frequent intervals from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. daily during the summer months. All tours originate at the Museum entrance and each tour lasts approximately one hour. Special group tours throughout the year may be arranged by calling the Museum at least two weeks in advance.

Ample parking is available at either of two parking garages nearby.

Choir Exchange

This Sunday, May 29th, the First Congregational Church of Marion and the First Congregational Church of Wareham will have a choir exchange.

Mr. Robert Caldwell and the Wareham choir will be presenting excerpts from The Creation, an oratorio by Josef Haydn, at the Marion church. The Creation is in three parts. The May 29th presentation will include excerpts from Part I and Part II.

Student Summer Employment

The Division of Employment Security has announced a program of interest both to students seeking summer employment between May 15 and September 15 and to employers having need for seasonal workers.

Students who qualify on the basis of family income may be eligible to receive a certificate entitling their employer to receive an income tax credit for a portion of their wages. This can be a powerful incentive and should be pursued by all of those seeking summer work and qualifying.

Students may pick up a folder describing the program in the Guidance Department at Old Rochester Regional High School, and get further information from a guidance counselor.

Prospective employers are urged to call the Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Summer Program and the Division of Employment Security, 999-2361.

The Lloyd Center

This week's Weekly Walk on Sunday, May 29th, at 1:30 p.m. at the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies, 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth, will address the topic of the Maritime Forest community.

The oak-hickory forest at the Lloyd Center shows the effects of its close proximity to Buzzards Bay. Salt-spray-laden winds prune the tips of the trees and influence the community of plants and animals beneath the treetops in other ways as well.

During this walk the group will discuss basic tree identification and examine this maritime forest community.

Weekly walks at the Lloyd Center are open to the public and are free of charge.

LLOYD CENTER SUMMER PROGRAM APPLICATIONS

Applications are now available for students wishing to apply for the Lloyd Center's Summer Program in Coastal and Estuarine Studies. This year separate programs are being offered for students completing 6th, 7th, and 8th grades. Applications will be accepted until May 31st. To receive an application call the Center at 990-0505, or stop by at 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth, Tuesday through Sunday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Each Summer Program is four weeks in length with the 6th and 8th grade programs beginning July 5 and ending July 29, and the 7th grade program beginning August 2 and ending August 26. All programs are six and one half hours in length each weekday. This is not a residential program. Instruction for the Program is provided by Lloyd Center staff and Massachusetts Certified teachers.

The 6th grade Summer Program focuses on the development of environmental awareness. Several ecosystems will be studied in depth with emphasis given to developing knowledge about the environment and skills useful for understanding the environment.

Hazardous Waste

Hazardous Waste - What is It? is the title of a meeting scheduled for Thursday, May 26th, at the Riverside Restaurant on Route 28 in Middleborough. The Federal and State roles in hazardous waste management will be defined and explained. Representatives from industrial generators will describe what their companies are doing to safely handle hazardous by products from manufacturing.

Local success stories of environmentally safe methods of handling hazardous waste will be presented by community leaders.

The meeting will begin at 8:00 -8:30 a.m. and will end at approximately 4:15 p.m. The registration fee includes lunch. If interested in the details of the meeting or for registration contact Tom Heisler at 153 Broadway, Raynham, MA. 02767, or call 822-0577. Inquiries should be made before May 20th.

Wareham Festival

The Wareham Gateway Family Festival, sponsored by the Rescue and Equipment Fund of the Wareham Fire Department, is expecting a large turnout at the events planned for this summer.

Starting on June 25th, there will be a Firefly Scramble Golf Tourney at 2 p.m. at the Little Harbor Country Club. This will first draw teams from the police and fire departments, then it will be open to the public to be able to complete the number of teams needed.

On July 3rd and 4th there will be a family fair at Besse Park on the end of Main Street with Flea Markets throughout the town. Both of these events will have something for the whole family.

On July 4th there will be a parade through Wareham Center. This will be at 1 p.m. so as not to interfere with the parade in Marion in the morning. Anyone interested in entering the parade please feel welcome to do so as the committee would like to get decorated bicycles, doll carriages, baby carriages or anything else you might think of that would be appropriate for a parade. Just call the Wareham Fire Station and leave your name, address and phone number and the committee will send you a form to fill out so we will be able to place you appropriately in the line of march.

On July 9th will be the 21st Annual Firemen's Ball at the Elks Lodge in East Wareham. The prizes from the golf tourney will also be awarded at the ball.

Looking ahead, on August 7th, the committee will sponsor the Mackinaw Music Show. This is a show of exciting family entertainment, again, something for everyone. The show will include country and western, pop, rock & roll and a live show all in one, so keep your eyes and ears open for more on this later.

Heritage Plantation

PEAK TIME FOR HERITAGE RHODODENDRON DISPLAY

Thousands of Dexter Rhododendrons and azaleas will be ablaze the last week of May through mid-June at Heritage Plantation of Sandwich. Due to a mild winter bud production is up and the 1983 spring season promises to be bountiful in the display of flowers.

Jeanie Gillis, Heritage horticulturist, will talk about rhododendron growing on Friday, June 3rd, at 10:30 a.m. in the Dexter Display Garden. The garden is located near the Arts and Crafts Building.

The Dexter Rhododendrons are named for Charles O. Dexter who transformed an unproductive 76 acre farm into a showplace in his retirement years between 1921 and 1943. At age 59 he was given only a short time to live, but happily for the plant breeder's art and Heritage Plantation visitors, he lived for 22 more years, developing between 5,000 and 10,000 seedlings annually.

Most were planted in the fields or open woods bordering Shawme Pond, and many thousands were given away to private gardens, nurseries and public botanical collections.

Fifteen years after his death an unofficial committee was formed of American Rhododendron Society members to locate the missing rhododendrons, name the best, and propagate these for distribution. Heritage Plantation has gained immeasurably because of this original program.

As a result, the Plantation's thousands of rhododendrons now include 125 of the known 145 Dester Cultivars.

Also to be found at Heritage are more than a thousand varieties of trees, shrubs, and flowers, all labeled, including 550 varieties of day lilies, provided by the American Hermerocallis Society, which will bloom in July.

Miss Gillis will also give a talk on "day lily growing" Wednesday, July 20, at 10:30 a.m. in the day lilly garden.

It is not surprising that it has been written of the horticultural offerings, "if you tire of Americana, try the view... it is almost unbelievable!"

Heritage Plantation of Sandwich, a museum of diversified Americana on 76 acres of spectacular gardens and trails, is open daily 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. through October 16. The Shaker Round Barn displays 14 beautifully restored antique and classic cars and a special exhibit, "Automotive Art", in the lower rotunda gallery; in the Military Museum are antique firearms, 2,000 military miniatures and an exhibit, "The

St. Luke's Hospital

St. Luke's Hospital dedicated its new building, the Century Building, on Sunday, May 15th. Rainy skies made the relocation of the outdoor program necessary but the event went on as planned on the ground floor of the Center Building.

Beginning at 2:00 p.m., the Dartmouth High School Band entertained an overflowing crowd. David Cameron, building committee chairman and vice president of St. Luke's Board of Trustees, presided over the program which included an invocation by Rabbi Bernard F. Glassman of Tifereth Israel Synagogue; remarks by Mayor Brian Lawler; Alfred Smialek, Executive Director; Muriel Morse, Auxiliary President; Dr. Harold Woodcock, President of the Medical Staff; Glen F. Johnson, President of the Board of Trustees; Senator William Q. MacLean, Jr.; Prayers of Thanksgiving by Father Kevin Tripp, Catholic Chaplain, and Father Constantine Bebis of St. George Greek Orthodox Church. Representing the Governor, Mrs. Margaret D. Xifaras commented about the concern of rising health care cost. She applauded St. Luke's Hospital for its efficiency in operation and broad range of services which, she noted, are in line with the governor's health care goals.

setts Hospital Association, mentioned a proposed statewide cap on hospital capital expenditures, and he challenged the community to let their legislators know how they feel if they could not have access to the latest advances in medical technology.

Rev. Earl Miller, former Protestant Chaplain at St. Luke's, gave the benediction.

Following the program nearly 1000 people toured the new six-story patient addition which houses a new Family-Centered Maternity Services Unit, Labor/Delivery Comples and Nursery; an 8-bed Intensive Care Unit; and 8-bed Coronary Care Unit; and an 18-bed Progressive Care Unit; three 18-bed medical surgical units; a 20-bed Stroke Unit; and a 16-bed Neurological Unit; a new Surgical Suite with 12 operating rooms, a new recovery room and Ambulatory Surgical Unit; an expanded Radiology Department; and a centralized Stores, Processing and Distribution Department.

Following tours through the Century Building, cake, punch and entertainment by organist Arlene Ferreira capped the dedication day.
